

We work to make CASA a safe place for everyone. We will not tolerate racial, sexual or other harassment against any user, visitor or staff member. Racist or sexist comments, or any other behaviour that makes CASA's services feel less safe are not tolerated.

We value the range of viewpoints that people with different backgrounds can bring. Our services are more useful for everyone when they benefit from these differences.

CASA has been providing services to the people of north London since 1974. We treat each family and individual as unique, with their own strengths and needs. We believe that people can build upon their strengths to achieve lasting positive change.

A service for Islington

CASA Family Service

CASA Family Service helps children, young people and families who are having difficulties because of parental use of alcohol or other drugs.

Sometimes a parent* can have difficulties because of their own or their partner's use of alcohol or other drugs. This can have a big impact on everyday life and relationships for everyone in the family, particularly for children and young people. Parents may be worried about this but not know where to get help and advice.

CASA Family Service offers non-judgemental and respectful support from committed staff. Through our free and confidential service we help parents to provide a safer and more secure environment for everyone in the family, particularly for children and young people.

 'parent' could mean anyone in a position of parental responsibility.*
